

I thank you my host
For for being so piteous addict

With pressure and devotion
I conquer and take over
Your back, your triceps, your calves

I will tear you apart, limb from limb
Fever and haze
Byproducts of my art!

Into the unknown you fall
Flesh bids farewell to the bones
Piss all over the floor
You abuse no more

Rhabdomyolysis!
Rhabdomyolysis!

I thank you my host
For the ever rotting presence of yours

Collapse and disorientation, triumphant chaos
Whirlwinds in the core system of your inmost being

I'm your pain, I'm your savior, I'm your everything
How does it feel like to die with piss dripping from your eyes?

Into the unknown you fall
Flesh bids farewell to the bones
Piss all over the floor
You abuse no more

Rhabdomyolysis!
Rhabdomyolysis!
Rhabdomyolysis!
Rhabdomyolysis!
